JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM—HOW THEY DRESSED A CENTURY AGO.—To begin with the lady: Her locks were strained upwards over an immense cushion, that sat like an incubus on her head, and plastered over with pomatum, and then sprinkled over with a shower of white powder. The height of this tower was somewhat over a foot. The single white rosebud lay on its top, like an eagle on a haystack. Over her neck and bosom was folded a lace handkerchief, fastened in front by a brilliant rather larger than a copper cent, containing her grandfather's miniature, set in virgin gold.

Her airy form was dressed up in satin dress, the sleeves at tight as the natural skin of the arm, with waist formed by a bodice, worn outside, whence the skirt flowed off, and was distended at the top by an ample hoop. Shoes of white kid with peaked toes, and heels of two or three inches elevation, enclosed her feet, and glittered with spangles, as her pedal members peeped cautiously out. Now for the swain: His hair was slicked back and plentifull bedizened, while his queue projected like the handle of a skillet. His coat was a sky blue silk, lined with yellow, long vest of white satin embroidered with gold lace; his breeches, of the same, tied at the knee with pink ribbon. White silk stockings, and pumps with laces and ties of the same hue. Lace ruffles clustered around his wrists, and a portentous frill, worked in correspondence, and bearing the miniature of his beloved, finished his truly genteel appearance.

A WOMAN AND HER CHILD ALL NIGHT IN THE SNOW.—In the great snow storm of the 15th of February last Mrs. Nathaniel Moody left Lewiston with a horse and pung for her home in Auburn, on the westerly side of Taylor Pond. She had in her arms a child two years of age. On reaching the pond she attempted to drive across to shorten the distance, but lost the track, and after driving around in a circle for an hour or more, it being dark and cold, she decided to stop where she was and make the best of the situation. Wrapping the child up in two buffalo robes which she fortunately had, she unharnessed the horse and turned him loose. She then tipped the pung up and made a temporary shelter beneath it, and wrapping the drapery of her couch about her, she made a pillow of her arm for the little child and with one robe beneath them and one above them, and the sheets of snow over and under all, they entered on a long, cold and desolate winter night. The snow drifted against the pung, and rendered her novel resting place warmer. Though her sleep was not untroubled with dreams, Mrs. Moody woke the next morning to find herself safe and the babe sleeping as sweetly on the fleecy snow as on downy pillows. A part of her arm had become exposed and had frozen, otherwise she was warm. The horse appeared at the homestead across the pond and in the morning, his presence revealed the trouble. Search was immediately made, and Mrs. Moody and child were soon rescued. Such an exhibition of presence of mind and courage is rare.

SPEAK KINDLY TO HIM.—A farmer once saved a very poor boy from drowning. After his restoration he said to him:

"What can I do for you, my boy?"

"Speak a kind word to me sometimes," replied the boy, as the tears rushed from his eyes. "I ain't got a mother, like some of them."

A kind word! Think of it. That farmer had it in his power to give that boy money, clothes, playthings; but the poor fellow craved nothing so much as a kind word now and then. If the farmer had ever so little heart the boy must certainly have had the wish granted.

A kind word! Think of it. You have many such spoken to you daily and you don't think much of their value; but that poor boy in your village, at whom everybody laughs, would think that he had found a treasure if some one would speak a kind word to him. Suppose you speak it! The next time you meet him, instead of laughing at him, speak kindly to him. Then watch him and see how he looks. See if his eyes do not brighten and his lips smile.

Kind words! They are blessed things. Speak them, children, every day. Scatter them like sunbeams everywhere. They please others, and then return to bless your own hearts. Kind words forever.

HOW TO COURT IN CHURCH.—A young gentleman, happening to sit at church in a pew adjoining one in which sat a young lady for whom he conceived a sudden and violent attachment, was desirous of entering into a courtship on the spot, but the place not being suitable for a formal declaration, the case suggested the following plan:

He politely handed his fair neighbor a Bible, opened with a pin stuck in the following text: Second epistle of John, verse 5: "And now I beseech thee, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which he had from the beginning, that we love one another."

She returned it, pointing to the second chapter of Ruth, tenth verse—"Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him: "Why have I found grace in thine eyes, seeing that I am a stranger?"

He returned the book, pointing to the thirteenth chapter of the third epistle of John:

"Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with a pen and ink, but I trust shortly to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full."

From the above interview a marriage took place recently

A MOTHER'S LOVE.—Lamartine tells a story that exquisitely illustrates a mother's love:—"In some spring freshet, a river wildly washed its shores, and cast away a trough wherein a bird had built a cottage for her summer home. Down the white and whirling stream drifted the green branch, its wicker cup of unfledged song, and flattering behind it as it went, the mother bird. Unheeding the roaring river, on she went, her cries of agony and fear piercing the pauses in the storm. How like the love of the old fashioned mother, who followed the child she had plucked from her heart all over the world. Swept away by passion that child might be, it mattered not, though he was bearing away with him the fragrance of the shattered roof tree, yet that mother was with him, a Ruth though all his life, and a Rachel at his death."

Notice! Notice! Notice! Notice!

HAVING seen by the Standard and SENTINEL of 5th, that the Yarborough House is advertised as the only first class Hotel, we wish to call the attention of the traveling public to two or three facts:

It is well known that the National Hotel is new and was furnished by J. M. Blair, (who gave us this notice extraordinary of the Yarborough House,) regardless of expense, only this past Fall, but it was done when he expected to be the Proprietor, and retain this, as he expressed it, for his first class boarders, and send his second class to the Yarborough. The trouble was he had to go there himself.

To do justice to the owners of this property, my customers and myself, I will say that let the public simply give the house a trial, and they will say no neater, cleaner, better kept house can be found in the South or North.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 12th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1870.

REPLY TO THE GOVERNOR.

We believe the Governor to be the author of an editorial which appeared in the Standard of Saturday last, addressed directly to the editor of this paper, asking, "who is the king of the Ku Klux?"

We say we believe the said editorial to be the production of the Governor, and this is the general opinion of those who have read it, so far as we have heard. We know it is natural for a son to resemble the father, but this editorial is so like the style of the Governor, that we don't think it can be Joe's; besides, this is not the first time the Governor has resorted to this trick of selling out his paper to his son Joe and editing it under the cloak of his name. The facts or pretended facts, stated in this editorial are to be found no where else but in the Governor's possession. Having thus settled, to our own satisfaction and, we believe, to the satisfaction of the public, the paternity of the editorial, we shall proceed to give it such notice as the nature of it demands.

And first, we say the editorial is question is, in the whole, disingenuous, and in many respects false. A long array of facts are paraded, running through a considerable space of time, that have no more bearing or connection with ku klux operations than they have with league depredations. And even if every one of them were traceable directly to the ku klux, it does not establish the point the Governor was driving at in writing the editorial, namely, that he is justified in the course he has pursued in regard to Alamance county.

When the thieving members of the Governor's leagues, under the teachings of the "Legislative address," and the midnight harangues of ignorant local leaders, were committing larceny, burglary, rape and many other crimes, and were caught and punished, they came straight to the Governor, as did Bill Huskey, his thieving detective, after being whipped at Chapel Hill, and made their reports, of course declaring their babe like innocency, and were met with the encouraging sympathy, no doubt, that martyrs sometimes meet.

But whether the punishment inflicted as above indicated, were the spontaneous outbursts of an injured and enraged individual or neighborhood, the Governor sets it all down as the work of an organized company of ku klux, and this he does to justify his action in issuing his proclamation against the county of Alamance.

The Governor meets our charge that he is President of the League, with a denial and at the same time intimates that we are the "king of the ku klux," and frequently, in his private conversations with both white and black he has held similar language.—He can have but one object in this, namely to excite his Jacobinical mobs against us as he attempted to do in his City Hall speech, before the Mayor.

We tell the Governor we shall live down and outgrow what little damage his calumny and falsehood, thus promulgated, may be calculated to do us; we are too well fortified in innocence to feel troubled at the impotence of his evil tongue or pen, though he may use them for our destruction with his eighty thousand ignorant leaguers, who are bound to him and he to them by horrid oaths, administered in the gloom of midnight caves, by the spectral light of burning chemicals; such oaths as Robespierre and Danton bound their bloody Leagues by, and under which the foulest murders were committed. We have the oath by which his adherents and himself are bound together. We have a charter for the formation of a League in a certain county, signed by W. W. Holden, as Grand President of the Leagues in North Carolina, and to the genuineness of the signature, thousands of citizens of Wake county would make affidavit.

Besides all this, since Pike, late editor of the Standard, (many of whose friends would like to see him return to the city,) denied that the Governor was President of the Leagues, Jordan Potter, head of the League in Oxford, declared before a multitude of people, at the last Granville Court, that Governor Holden was still the President of the Leagues. The charge made by the Governor, that we are "king of the ku klux," is no answer to the charge that he is President of the League. And more than that, his charge is false.

The Governor in his article, alludes to a statement in the SENTINEL of the 9th November last, to the effect that violence had been committed on the person of a young girl in the western part of Wake by a negro militiaman, and says the name of the lady has never been given by the SENTINEL, and that the statement was false. To this insinuation of the Governor we have to say that the fact was reported to us by a gentleman from the neighborhood, who referred to other persons to corroborate its truth. Mr. Moore, our Assistant, went on the Market Square to make enquiries, and there found a neighbor of the girl's mother, who told the same story, but said it was the desire of the family not to have the name published, as the perpetrators of the crime could not be identified, and they shrunk from a useless publicity. The story was as current in the city as the one recently published in the Standard of a negro being hung in Alamance since the Outlaw affair.

The Governor lays great stress on the fact that the "Grand Jury failed to find the slightest shadow of truth in the story," but this might have happened from the fact that they had some of his pets on that jury.

We tell the people of Wake that their Grand Juries have greatly deteriorated since they have had Holden for Governor, Watts for Judge, Tom Lee for Sheriff, Calvin Rogers for Commissioner, and Hawk Rogers for Grand Juror, and they are growing worse instead of better.

We can call the Governor's attention to one of two cases in which there was more flagrant failures to make presentments than in the one he alludes to, of the reported violence of the negro militiaman. The Governor's son, accompanied by Pike, his late editor, Busbee his present detective, and a dozen others, came upon us in Davie street for a deadly attack. We drew a pistol, cocked and presented it at the mob, who stood at bay until the police came and arrested them; yet the Grand Jury of Wake made no presentment. Either the mob should have been indicted for a conspiracy to attack us, or we should have been indicted for attacking them,—one side or the other was guilty, but with a hundred witnesses right here in the city, no presentment was ever made.

Take another case. We informed Mr. Peterson Dunn, Foreman of the late Grand Jury of Wake, of the fact that, in the Superior Court Clerk's office, sworn evidence of Gen. Littlefield's having given a note to a fictitious person for an illegal purpose, could be found recorded, which note was believed to have been given to bribe a member of the Legislature, and had been passed, sued on and paid by Littlefield, yet no presentment was made.

We shall revert to this subject again; in the mean time, we take occasion to declare that the man who says or intimates, that we belong to what is called the ku klux klan, or any other secret association of the kind, or that we know anything concerning such an organization more than is known to the public generally, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Beeman: Bill to prescribe a just settlement of the debts contracted for slaves after May 20th, 1861. Referred.

By Mr. Forkner: Bill supplemental to and explanatory of an act to repeal certain acts passed at the session of 1868-'69, making appropriations to Railroad Companies. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Motion of Mr Burns to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed, to provide for the completion of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

Mr. Love urged the adoption of the motion, his main objections to the bill will appear in his protest against its passage.

Mr. Burns said he desired further time to consider the subject under consideration and moved to further postpone his motion to Wednesday next at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Sweet opposed the motion to postpon, and moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

Mr. Graham called the previous question on the motion to reconsider, which was lost.

Mr. Sweet's motion to table prevailed by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs Beeman, Brogden, Blythe, Colgrove, Eppes, col., Forkner, Galloway, col., Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, col., Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Moore, of Carteret, Stephens, Sweet and Whiteside—17.

NAYS.—Messrs, Barnes, Beall, Beasley, Bellamy, Burns, Graham, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Long, Love, Melchor, Murphy, Walker and Waite—14.

On motion of Mr. Welker the rules were suspended and the "bill to provide for the collection of taxes by the State and by the several counties of the State on property, polls and income," was taken up and considered by sections.

Mr. Welker moved to amend the 11th section by striking out the clause exempting "household and kitchen furniture, Mechanical and agricultural implements of Mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments, not exceeding in aggregate value three hundred dollars," which was voted down.

AYES.—Messrs. Beall, Bellamy, Forkner, Harrington, Jones of Columbus, Legg, Love, Moore of Carteret, Stephens, Sweet, Welker, and White.—12

On motion of Mr. Moore of Carteret, the 11th section was so amended as to exempt the property of the "order of Good Templars and that of the Friends of Temperance from taxation.

Mr. Graham, offered the following as a substitute for sub-division, six of section eleven, to wit:

Any township board of trustees in any county of the State that fails to allow the exemption prescribed in the last preceding sub-division, or knowingly allows any tax payer more than there is exempted in said section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, which was adopted.

Mr. Hayes offered the following as an additional section, to wit:

SECTION 15. On or before the 1st day of June the State Treasurer shall notify the County Commissioners of each County of the amount of money which has been directed by law to be placed to the credit of the County, and the County Commissioners shall credit the amount pro rata to each township in proportion to the amount listed by the townships, and the amount so credited to the township shall be reduced pro rata from the amount levied or required from each tax payer, and the residue shall only be collected.

Mr. Graham said. He would suggest to the Senator who offered this amendment that he postpone it until the tax bill comes up. If the $317,000, of special taxes now in the treasury are applied to the general fund and also the dividend of $180,000, from the North Carolina Railroad so applied, and the taxes levied by the proposed revenue bill, (which he did not estimate above $300,000) are collected, it will not carry the government through to the 1st of December next.

The Treasurer states in his last communication that there will be a deficit of $300,000, on the 1st day of April. The special taxes already collected will stop that leak, but if credited on the tax lists for 1870 will leave no tax to be collected this year, and you will depend solely upon the $180,000 received from the North Carolina Railroad, to carry on the government from April 1st 1870 to October 1st 1871.—He could only understand such indifference shown by the party in power, on the supposition that the persons composing that party do not expect ever to be seen again in these Halls as Representatives. But are you willing, merely to give these persons who shall be returned "a hard road to travel" to break down the common schools and turn your government into ridicule, if so adopt this amendment and you have accomplished your object.

The amendment was adopted by the following vote.

AYES.—Messrs Barnes, Beasley, Beeman, Bellamy, Brogden, Colgrove, Cook, Eppes col. Hayes, Legg, Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Stephens and Sweet.—15.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beall, Burns, Forkner, Graham, Harrington, Hyman, Jones of Mecklenburg, Jones of Wake, Long, Moore of Carteret and Welker.—11.

On motion of Mr. Cook, section 16 was amended so as to allow the County Commissioners "six" instead of "three" days, to revise the tax lists and valuations, reported to them.

On motion of Mr. Whiteside, section 17, was amended so as to require parties who may complain that they are charged with an excessive tax, to present said complaints "in writing."

Mr. Stephens moved to strike out the clause in the 21st section requiring the Clerk of the Commissioners to furnish the number of (white and colored) polls (separately) which was voted down. Yeas 12, nays 15.

Section 25 provides that all taxes shall be due on the 1st day of September.

On motion of Mr. Cook, "September" was stricken out and "July" inserted.

On motion of Mr. Graham, the 27th section was stricken out.

Section 28 was read. Pending its consideration the Senate adjourned until this evening at 7½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
RALEIGH, March 19, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:

DEAR SIR—In the SENTINEL of the 18th, I find and extract from a Washington correspondence of the New York Herald, in which it is stated, that lawlessness prevails in Onslow county. As a representative of that county and her interest, I cannot allow this grave charge to go undenied and uncorrected. Were I to do so, I should be unworthy of the confidence the people of Onslow have imposed in me. There is not now, nor has there ever been, even a shadow of a cause for this libel upon the people of a law abiding and law loving county. In Onslow the law is faithfully executed and by all observed. There has not been a murder committed in the county for five years past, and the violations of the criminal law is in the nature of petty misdemeanors. Judge Thomas, a Republican Judge, usually tries all the cases on the "criminal docket" in two days. I am certain he will cheerfully bear testimony to the good order that prevails in Onslow among all classes of society. I have deemed it my duty to make this plain denial of the statement made by the Herald's correspondent, because such charges are well calculated to injure the best interest of the county. I hope the Standard will do the people of Onslow the justice to insert this card.

FRANKLIN THOMPSON,
Representative of Onslow Co.

TO MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS OF WAKE.

At the solicitation of many of you I hereby announce myself an Independent Candidate to represent you in the House of Representatives, at the coming August election. Should you see fit to cast your suffrage for and elect me to that position, my chief and only aim will be to work for your own interests and the prosperity of the State. My views upon the leading topics of the day will be fully and satisfactorily explained to you in the coming canvass, as I shall address you at all the principal precincts in the County.

Respectfully,

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO,

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes in the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW ADS.—We would not have our readers overlook the following new advertisements which appear this morning:

Messrs. Murchison, & Co., Factors and Commission Merchants. Their card and advertisement will be found interesting to dealers.

Machinery of a Cotton Factory at auction in Petersburg, Va., by T. Pannill, on the 18th of April.

Hyman's & Dancey, Norfolk, Va., notice elsewhere.

B. F. Cheatham, "Dickson" cotton seed, firm old leaf tobacco and corn.

See the card of Mrs. A. R. Oster, noticed elsewhere.

Auction sale of desirable goods, to-night, by W. H. Jones & Co.

By the same to-day at 3 o'clock, at the store of M. Rosenbaum.

Excelsior Oil, supercedes kerosene, for sale, with other desirable household goods and builders' hardware, by Julius Lewis.—We are going to try some of that "Excelsior Oil," and tell what it is afterward. We are favorably impressed in regard to it already.

SOMETHING FOR THE LADIES.—Mrs. A. R. Oster is stopping at Mrs. Fentress' Boarding House, where she is prepared to give lessons in fitting ladies' dresses, &c., by a method. Every lady ought to know how to cut and fit her own dresses and here's an opportunity for those who don't know how, to learn. She is a Southern lady.—See her card.

THE OATES' OPERATIC AND BURLESQUE TROUP LAST NIGHT.—This Company opened to the largest and most intelligent audience at Tucker Hall, last night that we have seen assembled there this season.

Owing to the early hour we are compelled to go to press in order to save the mail, we can make only an imperfect and very unsatisfactory notice of the performances. "The Daughter of the Regiment," Mrs. Jas. A. Oates as Josephine, was rendered to universal acceptance and received with unbounded applause. All the members of the Company sustained their parts well; we cannot individualize.

See the announcement for to-night and secure seats early, for, judging from the crowd last night, and the universal satisfaction given, there will be a perfect jam to night.

SUGGESTION.—If members of the Legislature would enquire, it might turn out that one of their number, a favorite with the Governor, once demanded $2,000 of a certain official of the Governor's administration for his vote in favor of a certain measure which that official had at heart. We say, inquire gentlemen.

INQUIRE.—We would inquire of Treasurer Dave, whether French, the "Big Injin," has not left the Capitol for the remainder of the session, having drawn his pay up to the day of adjournment?—Haven't several others gone home having done the same thing?

We merely ask.

ONE BY OAK.—Renfrow, a misrepresentative in the Legislature, from Halifax county, is also Mail Agent on the line from Raleigh to Norfolk, and when he has to come to Raleigh to help make laws, he gets a substitute to fill his place on his mail line. This substitute of his was lately detected in opening letters passing over his route and stealing money out of them.—The last we heard of him he was on his way to Richmond to be examined before a U. S. Commissioner; and probably the next we hear of him, he will be on his way to the Penitentiary. So they go, one by one.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Hyman & Dancey, Cotton factors and Commission Merchants, to be seen in another column.—In addition to their regular commission business these gentlemen keep constantly on hand a full supply of fertilizers, embracing No. 1 Peruvian Guano, Phosphates, Bone dust, Plaster, Agricultural Lime, &c. &c. all of which they offer to cash buyers at the lowest rate they can possibly be sold. They have in store and purchased to arrive 150 tons of genuine No. 1 Peruvian Guano; farmers and others purchasing guano of them can rely upon its being pure and genuine as their purchases are made directly from the consignees of the Peruvian Government.

SPECIAL MENTION.—It is with more than ordinary interest that we invite the attention of our friends to the advertisement of the "GREAT HENDERSON CO. KY. SCHEME," which we give a prominent position in our columns to day. This is not one of the petty "gift" or "lottery" affairs which dishonest rascals so often attempt to palm off upon unsuspecting people, but a straight-forward and legitimate enterprise, with a regular charter from the Legislature of Kentucky, and the full approval of all prominent officials and leading citizens in the State. We do not believe, that any one so inclined, will ever have a more favorable opportunity to invest five dollars more satisfactory than in this Scheme.

JUST OUT.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Horseness. None so pleasant, none cure so quick.

Manufactured by
RUSHTON & CO.,
Astor House New York.

This old established firm, whose preparations, have acquired a world wide reputation for excellence, now offer this article. No More of those horrible tasted, nauseating, "Brown Cough Candies."

dec 23-dawly.

The matrimonial fever has raged in Edgecombe thus far this year, to an extent never before known, and in a manner to inspire old maids with renewed hopes, while old batchelors manifest a disposition to flee from the wrath to come. Two hundred and sixteen victims in two and a half months!—Tarboro Carolinian.

THE BRAGG COMMITTEE.

This committee, composed of Messrs. Bragg, Democrat, and Phillips and Scott, Republicans, made their report several days ago, but it was not printed and distributed until Sunday last, owing to its great length. We have glanced over it hurriedly, but it will take another and very careful reading to understand it fully.

We regret that the professional engagements of these gentlemen prevented them from giving a condensed or synoptical report, of the results and conclusions arrived at in the course of the investigation, apart from that contained in the large volume of evidence elicited. It seems their report consists of little more than the record of evidence taken down by their Clerk.

We have often thought that the Bench and the Bar of the State are more demoralized than any other class of our people, and we are pained to say that facts elicited by this investigation have not served at all to weaken this impression. Any delinquency on the part of either the Bench or the Bar is sure to call down on the head of the delinquent a double share of opprobrium.

It seems that George W. Swepson is made the scapegoat for all the villainies practiced in regard to the Western Division of the W. N. C. Railroad. We have no apologies to make for this man's conduct. His friends now report that he came here to go before the committee, but was frightened and advised off by certain gentlemen holding high positions.

He was closeted with the Governor, Monday night; on Tuesday night the Governor's special friend advised him to leave, a special train is fired up, the scapegoat is secretly put on board and carried to the wilderness. Whatever Swepson did in regard to North Carolina bonds, or to Florida frauds, Littlefield had a hand in, and was generally the agent, and whatever Littlefield did in this line, Swepson had a hand in. Swepson is made the scapegoat, by bearing off the sins of the others.

Go to your prayers, Governor, your sins will find you out.

THANKS.—We return our most sincere thanks to many friends who have recently sent us clubs of subscribers. We get them almost every day in larger or smaller numbers, for one or other of our editions, and our different lists are gradually and surely increasing.

We hope our friends over the State will continue to interest themselves in the circulation of the Sentinel. The Summer campaign will soon open, and the people ought to be informed in regard to the political issues involved in the contest, and it shall be our aim to keep our readers fully advised in regard to these issues.

GLASS BLOWING.—This is an interesting art, and one that would please any body, old or young. Those who have never witnessed anything of the kind can have an opportunity of doing so by calling in at Murray's old stand, next to Creech's corner, Fayetteville street, where may be witnessed the art of making various articles, useful and fancy, of glass, by Madame Nora, a Bohemian lady, an adept at the business.

At the same place may be seen Miss Leak, of Georgia, a lady without arms, who does various kinds of fancy work with her toes. We commend Miss Leak to the kindness and attention of the Masonic Fraternity, as she can give incontestible evidence of being the daughter of a Royal Arch Mason.

A visit to these levees by individuals and families could not prove otherwise than pleasant and instructive.

CHANGE.—We learn from the Norfolk papers that Mr. Ball, now door-keeper of our State Senate, has been superceded in the Mail Agency on the R. & G. and the S. & R. route, by a Mr. Thayer, of Platt's Congressional District, Va. Renfrow still retains his two offices—one State and one Federal, and not much fit for either.

By the way, how is it that one Rad can hold two offices and so many others have none.

DEVILTRY.—Some evil disposed scamp has struck out a new phase of mischief in our city. On Saturday last, while the cellar door of T. H. Briggs' store was standing open, some one crept in and set an oil barrel on the run, by which the contents were let out on the cellar floor. On the same day a molasses cask was set running ing in a cellar on Hargett street and the molasses wasted. Pity but the scoundrel or scoundrels had been caught at their tricks.

A fire occurred in Wilmington on last Friday, destroying several old buildings of no great value.

CARD.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AT the request of General J. C. B. Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.

We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) of what flows from the South to the North for Life Insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefitted by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.

We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) is INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS DERIVED.

This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and South Carolina, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in these States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of strangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States, its ratio of assets to liabilities exceeds that of a Company's above it, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Directors and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

J. H. MILLER,
General Agent.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is liquid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Pianos for Sale! Pianos for Sale.

MR. WILLIAM H. VAUGHAN, WELL known in our community as a Musician and Piano Tuner, is now appointed Agent for those splendid, Seven Octave, fine Rose Wood Pianos, built by C. M. Tremaine & Bro. These Pianos will be warranted for six years and Mr. Vaughan is here ready to keep the instrument in perfect tune, if it should need it. He has at this time one of the Pianos at his residence, on Cabarrus street, a little East of the N. C. R. R. Depot and would be glad to show it to any one who will call to see it.

These instruments took the premium at the Virginia State Fair, and without doubt are the best and cheapest instruments in the North or South.

Old Pianos taken in exchange for new ones, at a fair price. As I am confident that I can sell cheaper than anybody else, I beg of my own people in the State to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Piano tuning and Repairing done at shortest notice. Can make an old Piano as good almost as new, for a very low sum.

Address,
W. H. VAUGHAN
mar 9-tf Box 240 Raleigh.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT THE Messrs. Tremaine Bro's. took the first premium at the Virginia State Fair on their celebrated Pianos. These gentlemen fully understand their business, being thorough musicians themselves. Call at the Store of E. VIA, 26, Fayetteville Street and examine one of the finest they have ever made.
